The Lessons

The First Lesson: Acts 16:9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul.

When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Psalm 67

Said by all

- 1 May God be merciful to us and bless us, *
show us the light of his countenance and come to us.
- 2 Let your ways be known upon earth, *
your saving health among all nations.
- 3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
- 4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
for you judge the peoples with equity
and guide all the nations upon earth.
- 5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
- 6 The earth has brought forth her increase; *
may God, our own God, give us his blessing.
- 7 May God give us his blessing, *
and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,*
and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,*
world without end. Amen.

The Second Lesson: Revelation 21:10, 22-22:5

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

according to John.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me.

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

The Anthem: Exultate justi

Lodovico Viadana

Exsultate justi in Domino: rectos decet collaudatio. Confitemini Domino in cithara. In psalterio decem chordarum psallite illi. Cantate ei canticum novum. Bene psallite ei in vociferatione quia rectum est verbum Domini et Omnia opera ejus in fide.

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous; praise befits the upright. Give praise to the Lord on the harp; sing to him with the psaltery, the instrument of ten strings. Sing loudly to him a new song. The word of the Lord is right and all his works are sure.

—Psalm 33:1-3

Bishop Provenzano is urging people in the Diocese of Long Island to give generously to Episcopal Relief and Development's (ERD) International Disaster Fund to support relief efforts in Ecuador. ERD is working with local church partners on the ground in Ecuador as the country works to recover after a 7.8 magnitude earthquake devastated the coastal areas on April 16, killing more than 600 people, injuring over 12,000, and leaving many thousands without shelter. Healing a hurting world

In his latest blog post, Dean John McGinty asks “Is faith worth sharing?”. He says, it “...is a rhetorical question, for I know your answer is a resounding ‘Yes!’ But to share faith well in our time, we have to help one another, lean on one another, assist one another. That is why we sponsor a Faith Formation Day at Mercer School each May...we are happy to be welcoming John Roberto, one of the premier religious educators of our time. He will be leading us into discoveries on the reinvention of Christian education and formation for the 21st century.” Registration for Faith Formation Day is up at: <http://tinyurl.com/FFD2016>.

Anglican priest and artist Regan O’Callaghan has been invited by the Diocese of Long Island and the Mercer School of Theology to be artist-in-residence for the next 3 months. Over the past 16 years, Regan has developed an art ministry in the Diocese of London, U.K. where he is based. This ministry includes leading religious icon writing workshops, painting and sculpture workshops in parishes, schools and other institutions including the Soane Museum, London. His workshops and schedule will be listed on the Mercer website at www.mercerschool.org. If you are interested in scheduling a workshop, please contact Regan at: reganocallaghan@googlemail.com or phone the office of Trinity-St. John’s Episcopal Church at: 516-374-1415.

Save-the-Date for “Mass on the Grass”

the 3rd annual Baccalaureate Service to honor and bless our 2016 high school graduates. Graduating seniors, their families, friends and church members are all invited Saturday, May 21 at 11 am to the Cathedral of the Incarnation. A BBQ will follow on the Cathedral lawn and will feature music by the St. Mark’s Steel Orchestra. RSVP and register online by May 17 at tinyurl.com/massongrass
