People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for Purity

The Song of Praise The Hymnal 1982, S 278

Glory to God in the highest William Mathias

The Collect of the Day

Almighty Father, who inspired Simon Peter, first among the apostles, to confess Jesus as Messiah and Son of the living God: Keep your Church steadfast upon the rock of this faith, so that in unity and peace we may proclaim the one truth and follow the one Lord, our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: Acts 4:8-13

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.' There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved." Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and realized that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed and recognized them as companions of Jesus.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

- 1 The | Lord is • my | shepherd;*
therefore | can I | lack | nothing.
- 2 He shall feed me in a | green | pasture,*
and lead me forth be- | side the | waters • of | comfort.
- 3 He shall con- | vert my | soul,*
and bring me forth in the paths of | righteous • ness |
for his | Name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will | fear no | evil;*
for thou art with me;
thy | rod and • thy | staff | comfort me.
- 5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against | them that | trouble me;*
thou hast anointed my head with oil,
| and my | cup shall • be | full.
- 6 Surely thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me
all the | days of • my | life;*
and I will dwell in the | house of • the | Lord for- | ever.

The Second Lesson: 1 Peter 5:1-4

As an elder myself and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you to tend the flock of God that is in your charge, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion but willingly, as God would have you do it-- not for sordid gain but eagerly. Do not lord it over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock. And when the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

We extend a warm welcome to everyone, and especially any visitors who may be worshiping with us today. In the Episcopal Church, all baptized persons are invited to the table to receive Holy Communion.

Today's unusual Sequence Anthem was commissioned in 2004 for the Parish Choir at St. Peter's Church, Bay Shore, and written by Paul Spicer, a contemporary British composer, in memory of the Reverend Canon S. R. Peters, Rector of St. Peter's Church, 1946-1971.

The 126th Annual Meeting of the Parish will continue in the Parish Hall following the Service. There is no Sunday School today, but there will be activities available for children in the Lounge during the meeting.

JANUARY 18, 2015 – SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY WEEKEND

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., one of America's greatest civil rights leaders, was born on January 15, 1929, and was assassinated on April 4, 1968. Since 1986, the United States has celebrated King's birthday each year as a national holiday on the third Monday of January. The Episcopal Church also commemorates the day of King's death, April 4, each year on the liturgical calendar.

King emerged as one of the prominent civil rights leaders in the 1950s-1960s, incorporating Mahatma Gandhi's teachings of civil disobedience and nonviolence in the attempt to end racial segregation and racial discrimination in the United States.

In 1967 King wrote "Where Do We Go From Here? Chaos or Community?" a book in which he described his dreams for America's future, which included better education and jobs, and decent housing. The Episcopal Church's offices of Racial Reconciliation and Justice and Advocacy believe that the question King asks in the title of his book still resonates today. Their blog "A Way Forward: Reflections, Resources & Stories Concerning Ferguson, Racial Justice & Reconciliation,” explains:

“The shooting death of Michael Brown on August 9, 2014 continues to reverberate in Missouri, the United States and around the globe. The aftermath of the shooting raised questions about race, structural racism, racial justice, and criminal justice throughout the United States.”

Collect for Martin Luther King, Jr.

Almighty God, by the hand of Moses your servant you led your people out of slavery, and made them free at last: Grant that your Church, following the example of your prophet Martin Luther King, may resist oppression in the name of your love, and may secure for all your children the blessed liberty of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. (“Holy, Women, Holy Men,” p. 307)
