Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: Exodus 33:12-23

Moses said to the LORD, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people." He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest." And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth." The LORD said to Moses, "I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name." Moses said, "Show me your glory, I pray." And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, 'The LORD'; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But," he said, "you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live." And the LORD continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99 (Sung by all)

Chant: Stephen Elvey

- 1 The Lord is King: let the | people | tremble;*
- he is enthroned upon the cherubim: | let the | earth | shake.
- 2 The Lord is | great in | Zion;*
- he is | high a- | bove all | peoples.
- 3 Let them confess his Name, which is | great and | awesome;*
- he | is the | Holy | One.
- 4 "O mighty King, lover of justice,
- you have es- | tablished | equity;*
- you have executed justice and | righteous- | ness in | Jacob."
- 5 Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
- and fall down be- | fore his | footstool;*
- he | is the | Holy | One.
- 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests,
- and Samuel among those who call up- | on his | Name,*
- they called upon the Lord, | and he | answered | them.
- 7 He spoke to them out of the | pillar • of | cloud;*
- they kept his testimonies and the de- | cree that • he | gave | them.
- 8 O Lord our God, you answered | them in- | deed;*
- you were a God who forgave them,
- yet punished them | for their | evil | deeds.
- 9 Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God
- and worship him upon his | holy | hill;*
- for the Lord our God | is the | Holy | One.

The Epistle: I Thessalonians 1:1-10

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace. We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead-- Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Anthem at the Sequence

Charles Villiers Stanford

O for a closer walk with God, a calm and heavenly frame; a light to shine upon the road that leads me to the Lamb! Return, O holy Dove, return! Sweet messenger of rest; I hate the sins that made thee mourn, and drove thee from my breast. So shall my walk be close with God calm and serene my frame; so purer light shall mark the road that leads me to the Lamb.

— William Cowper

Alleluia Verse

Al-le-lu-ia, al - le-lu-ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Give me understanding, O Lord, and I shall keep your law with all my heart.*

The Gospel: Matthew 22:15-22

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?" But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Give to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's

To many, taxes are simply an instrument of oppression.

The founding narrative of the United States centers on tax burdens the British placed on the American colonies. In the nineteenth century, a foreign miners' license tax was levied on gold miners in California, requiring a monthly payment of every foreign miner who did not desire to become a citizen. The burden of the tax fell mainly on Chinese miners, as a federal law of 1790 restricted naturalization to white persons.

But taxes can also pool the resources of the many to address common problems too big for the charitable giving of individuals. They can express our shared participation in society, in a community where we look out for one another. So it is with our stewardship of giving.

Jesus' response to his opponents carried religious implications. Roman coins were stamped with the emperor's likeness and inscribed "Tiberius Caesar, august son of the divine Augustus, high priest." So the coins constituted blasphemy both to Jews and to the Christians in Matthew's church — the blasphemy of idolatry in the form of money.

But what if we followed the logic that we owe back to someone a thing that bears that someone's image? What is Jesus telling us that we owe to God? Quite simply, everything that bears God's image — that is, everything given to us in creation. God's greatness is stamped everywhere in the created world: air, water, and sunlight, our food, our very existence, and our hope. Because God's image is everywhere, we owe to God our thanks for the earth's abundance, and we owe to God the right and just stewardship of this abundance. And the image of God, made flesh in Jesus Christ, is also stamped on the face of every human being with whom we share God's creation, every other child of God, especially our brothers and sisters in need.

In rendering back to God what was God's own to begin with, we are stepping away from idolizing and hoarding the things that God has given us and directing our worship to where it belongs: to God. We are simply walking the disciple's way with the gratitude for life that we owe as God's children.

Reflection Questions

- Do you agree that God designed you for generosity?
- What does it mean to you to bear God's image?
- Do you believe that all is given by God as a gift?

Youth Invited to Join Walking Pilgrimage from Babylon to Cathedral of the Incarnation

Youth from Christ Church, Babylon will be on a walking pilgrimage from Christ Church in Babylon to the Cathedral in Garden City over the course of three days, beginning after school on Friday, Oct 24 through Sunday morning, Oct 26.

We invite other youth to join us on this 24.5 mile pilgrimage.

Please contact Kristin Carter at (516) 316-3400 or email LLLKristin@optonline.net for more information.

What is a pilgrimage? "A spiritual journey to a holy place." It is traveling "The Way." We will get to experience and perhaps even glimpse God in this suburban part of "God's Dominion in the Sea," and in the landscape and in one another.

On Friday we will walk 4 miles from Christ Church to St. Boniface, Lindenhurst where the youth of that parish will meet us and give us welcome. They are providing meals and fellowship, and we will spend the night.

The next morning we will walk 6.5 miles to St. Thomas, Farmingdale where we will have lunch at the Fellowship Café and then continue another 7 miles to St. Francis (formerly Christ the King) in East Meadow where we will be fed and spend the night.

Sunday morning we will rise bright and early to walk the final 7 miles to The Cathedral of the Incarnation in Garden City where we will be welcomed at the 11:15 AM service for a Pilgrim's Mass.

Children's Toy Drive Underway
